INSURANCE

The Contractor shall secure and maintain during the life of the contract such insurance as will protect him from claims for damages because of bodily injury, including death, and from claims for property damage which may arise both out of and during operations under this contract, whether such operations be by himself or by anyone directly employed by him.

Such coverage for bodily injury shall be in an amount not less than $500,000.00 including wrongful death, for any one person, and not less than $1,000,000.00 including wrongful death for more than one person where such injury arises out of the same accident. Such coverage for property damage shall be in an amount not less than $1,000,000.00.

The Contractor shall, if legally required to do so, secure and maintain during the life of this contract such insurance as will protect him from claims under workmen's compensation acts.

The Contractor shall furnish PMURC, Inc. with satisfactory proof of the insurance herein required before any work commences. This proof shall consist of three (3) certificates of each insurer insuring the contractor employed under the contract, which certificates shall contain the following information (except in the case of workmen's compensation insurance, items 1, 2 and 4 will be sufficient):

1. Name and address of the insured
2. Number of the policy and the type or types of insurance in force thereunder on the date borne by such certificate.
3. The expiration date of the policy and the limit or limits of liability thereunder on the date borne by such certificate.
4. A statement that the insurance of the type afforded by the policy applied to all the operations of the project which are undertaken by the insured during the performance of his contract.
5. A statement showing the methods of cancellation. If cancellation may be effected by the giving of notice to the insured and PMURC, Inc. by the insurer, the policy shall provide that cancellation shall not be effective until fifteen (15) days after receipt of such notice.
