ELIGIBILITY FOR LOCAL PREFERENCE

A local preference will be given to applicants whose head, co-head, or spouse are residents or are working in, or hired to work in HAGC’s operating jurisdiction. An applicant who is a resident of, or works in, HAGC’s operating jurisdiction on the day their application is received by HAGC will be eligible for the local preference. If the applicant does not live or work in HAGC’s operating jurisdiction at the time of eligibility determination, the applicant retains the local preference effective the date the application was received by HAGC. At the time of eligibility determination HAGC must verify that the applicant was a resident of, or worked in, HAGC’s operating jurisdiction at the time their application was received. An applicant who is homeless will receive a local preference if they can document to the satisfaction of HAGC that the applicant lived or worked in HAGC’s operating jurisdiction immediately prior to becoming homeless.

Applicants who have been notified that they are hired to work in a preference area are treated as residents of the residency preference area. An applicant, who lives and works outside HAGC’s operating jurisdiction on the day their application is received, will be entitled to the local preference if the applicant notifies HAGC in writing that the applicant moved into or began working in HAGC’s operating jurisdiction. The applicant must, at the time of eligibility determination, live or work within HAGC’s operating jurisdiction.

HOUSING PROGRAMS ADMINISTERED/MANAGED BY HAGC

1. Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program – General Application

WAITING LIST CURRENTLY CLOSED

HAGC administers tenant based rental assistance in the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program. The tenant generally pays 30% of their adjusted income towards rent and utilities and HAGC pays the rental assistance directly to third party landlords on behalf of the assisted tenants. The assisted dwelling units are subject to inspections in accordance with Housing Quality Standards (HQS) and/or NSPIRE (National Standards for the Physical Inspection of Real Estate) as determined by HUD.

2. Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program - Mainstream Preference

WAITING LIST CURRENTLY OPEN

In order to obtain a mainstream preference for the Housing Choice Voucher Program, eligible applicants must be a non-elderly person with a disability who are transitioning out of institutional or other segregated settings, at serious risk of institutionalization, homeless or at risk of becoming homeless.

A non-elderly person with disabilities is a person 18 years of age or older and less than 62 years of age, and who:

- (i) Has a disability, as defined in 42 U.S.C. 423;
- (ii) Is determined, pursuant to HUD Regulations, to have a physical or mental, or emotional impairment that:
 - a. Is expected to be of long continued and definite duration;

Visit our websites www.hagc.org or www.glassborohousing.org for more information.

- b. Substantially impeded his or her ability to live independently; and
 - c. Is of such a nature that the ability to live independently could be improved by more suitable housing conditions; or
- (iii) Has a developmental disability as defined in 42 U.S.C. 6001.

The eligible household member does not need to be the Head of Household. HAGC requires applicants to email a Mainstream Preference Certification form to mainstreampreference@hagc.org to be entitled to this preference.

3. Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program - Veterans and Surviving Spouse Preference

PROGRAMS OFFERED TO CURRENT QUALIFIED PARTICIPANTS

1. Family Self Sufficiency Program

HAGC operates a Family Self Sufficiency (FSS) Program to assist Public Housing and Housing Choice Voucher Participants by increasing their earned income and reducing dependency on the rental subsidy. Families work closely with the FSS Coordinator in developing the family's individual training and service plan with specific short-term and long-term goals. The FSS Coordinator meets individually with each family to review progress under such a plan and connects the families with resources to achieve successful goal completion. Families are offered credit and budget counseling, career and educational counseling and community-based services specially tailored to their unique goals.

2. Homeownership Program

Participants of the Public Housing Program and the Housing Choice Voucher Program may be eligible to participate in HAGC's Homeownership Program. These participants undergo extensive mentoring and monitoring to ensure participants are prepared for homeownership through credit counseling and budget management courses.

3. ROSS Program

HAGC operates a Resident Opportunities and Self-Sufficiency (ROSS) Program which provides supportive services to Public Housing Participants to remain living independently and age in place rather than require institutionalized placement. The ROSS Program also provides financial literacy training, food and nutrition services, referral of health care services, mental health services and wellness programs. The ROSS Program also has the objective of promoting job training and mentoring programs for disabled and elderly persons through employment and career counseling and economic self-sufficiency training.

4. Congregate Services Program for Senior Residents

HAGC operates a Congregate Services Program for the elderly, funded through the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs, HAGC, and the tenant receiving services. Congregate provides daily meals, housekeeping, laundry, and shopping services for eligible tenants.
